STRANGER THAN EVER.

Hanlon Is Again Downed and McGunnigle Finally Engaged as Manager, There are strange things and beings in tife, out the Pittsburg Baseball Club is champion in that respect. Certainly the directors of that club must be a lot of funny mortals, and when it is said that last evening they resolved to engage Mr. McGunnigle as manager the public will see the force of the state ment. On Thursday these directors met Mr. McGunnigle and they failed to come to McGunnigle and they failed to come to terms. The directors subsequently decided to give Manager Hanlon absolute power over the team, a power which he has never had.

But the arch-enemies of Hanlon got to work yesterday and caused another change. There are some parties connected with the club who would now sooner wreck it body and soul than allow Hanlon to have a fair show and their influence prompted the show. Messrs. McCallin and Rea had left the city after agreeing that Hanlon should be manager in fact. But as soon as they departed the remaining directors were individually canvassed and all the arts of Quixotic oratory brought to bear in a way that changed them, and as a result Hanlon was thrown down. was thrown down.

Mr. McGunnigle thought last night that he

HALL-FITZSIMMONS.

New Orleans Has No Chance for the Mill but a Minnesota Town Wants It. St. Paul, July 24.—R. M. Frank, of the Dlympic Club of New Orleans, has finally given up the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight for that city. Last night he offered $9,000 for the fight to take place in December, but the men wanted to have the advantage of their present splendid condition and refused to wait so long. As a last offer he proposed a wait so long. As a last offer he proposed a purse of $9,030, and the fight to come off in 15 days, but Hall rejected the offer, saying he will not now fight until December. This, however, does not suit the Board of Direc, tors of the Olympic Club, and Mr. Frank has, therefore, withdrawn all offers for the fight to take place in New Orleans.

BA dispatch from Grand Rapids, Minn., says: The Pokegama Athletic and Sportsmen's Association of Grand Rapids, Minn., this morning decided to offer $10,000 for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight with or without this morning decided to offer $10,000 for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight with or without gloves, and will also furnish a guarantee that the fight in Itasca county would not be interfered with. There is only one known militia man within 100 miles of this place, and he is an officer in the Third Regiment. To put it plainly, all the authorities for 100 miles in any direction would wink at the fight and even help it on with schemes and money.

BEFORE THE COURT.

The Trainers of Fitzsimmons Charged With

Aiding in a Prize Fight. St. Paul, July 24 .- The most interesting cases in the Municipal Court this morning were those of Barney Smith and James Car-roll, for the training of Robert Fitzsimmons for a prize fight. Fitzsimmons and his trainers were arrested on Tuesday, and their cases were continued to this morning. The defendants' counsel, J. J. McCafferty, raised the point that the complaint was ambiguous and uncertain, in that it charged three distinct offenses. The complaint did not charge a material offense "with weapons" or "without weapons." Judge Cory reserved his decision in the matter until to. norrow, and the cases were continued.

Washed Their Hands of It.

St. PAUL, July 24.-The President and Sec retary of the Minnesota Athletic Club have ssued a statement that their club will have nothing more to do with the Hall-Fitzsim-mons fight; that no puglistic entertain-ments will hereafter be given by them, and that no arrangements for one would have been made had they known that the law prohibited such exhibitions.

The Manfields play great ball, and as Bridgeville is chasing the "Gyms" pretty hard for the lead, it is very likely that they will hustle, so it is certain to be interesting. Great improvements have been made since the last field sports. New seating capacity, including a covered grandstand, has been added, and will accommodate 2,000 people. New dressing rooms have also been added, with shower bath, etc. One admission, 25 cents, admits to both sports and ball game, and a great crowd will result, which the Duquesne Traction will accommodate by putting on extra cars on their Larimer and Lincoln branch.

McAuliffe signed the articles, but when Gibbons saw that the articles stated the fight to be for 15 rounds, he insisted on a finish fight or none at all. He did not sign.

THE NEWS FROM THE NEARBY TOWNS.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.] CARLISLE, July 24.-This afternoon a fearful wind and thunder storm, accompaned by vivid flashes of lightning, passed over the Cumberland valley, doing considerable damage to property and stock. During the progress of the storm a bolt of lightning struck the shoe factory in this city, playing havoc with the building and machinery. At the time there were 300 hands employed in the building, most of them being women, and when the bolt descended a panicstricken crowd rushed for the door.

Several of the young ladies were slightly shocked, while three fell to the floor unconscious, thus adding to the confusion. It is thought Misses Spangler and Johnson are fatally injured, as up to this time they have not recovered consciousness. Six other young lady operatives were seriously injured, besides being bruised in the rush. The lightning also crushed and burned out two shoe machines, besides doing other injury to the building, though no fire resulted.

The storm that passed over the city this afternoon is reported to have done a great deal of damage among the farmers, though particulars are hard to get at this hour. David Line, a farmer living near this city, lost every head of his valuable stock, consisting of blooded horses, several cows and other stock. The animals had gathered in the barn and sheds and under trees, and in almost every case the lightning tore these n almost every case the lightning tore thes structures from end to end, completely clear-ing off the farm. A dispatch from Oil City says: Much damage was done in Venango county by yesterday evening's storm. Across the southwestern part a strip three-quarters of a mile wide was swept by bail, badly damaging fruit and crops in general and buckwheat in particular. The residences of Mrs. M. J. Smullen, of Salem, and Henry Baum, of Bredinsburg, were struck by lightning, as were several derricks and the barn of Charles Flenchbaugh, of Egypt. The barn's contents included $1,000 worth of machinery, two cows and the season's hay crop.

THAT MURDEROUS PRIZE FIGHTA

tional Evidence Crops Out in th Coroner's Inquest.

MONONGAHELA CITY, July 24.-The Coroner' jury this afternoon, after a long session dur-ing which interesting testimony was taken, brought in the following verdict in regard to the man Myford, who was killed yesterday in a prize fight: "We find that John Myford to his death by a blow of the fist struck by one Harry Boyd, now in custody."
This city has been greatly excited over the

This city has been greatly excited over the unexpected result of what was considered a rather harmless feud between the two men mentioned. From the evidence produced it is thought there was nothing in the story of jealousy over a girl's affections, but that it was merely a combat in a trial of strength, each man claiming to be the better. The evidence brought out to-day showed that the men had three severe fights during the day, with varying results. It was finally decided to fight it out once for all, it being decided to shake hands before and after the fight, which came to such a fatal end. Boyd is 28 years of age and married, while his victim was only 21 years and single. There was not the slightest ill feeling shown between the men until yesterday, though there are some who still say there was more back of the fight than was brought out. After the inquest word was received from Boyd, who is in custody, that he would demand a hearing to-morrow before being taken to jall in Washington. He was not allowed to tell his story to-day, and may have some light to throw on the subject. It is now known that there were several men of this city who were connected one way or the other with the fight, and it is altogether likely that they were connected one way or the other the fight, and it is altogether likely tha Youngsrown, July 24 .- Young Otto Newman was found in the western part of the city with his hands tied and apparently marks of violence, causing the report that an attempt had been made to murder him. The constable arrived at the depot about this time and prepared to make the levy, but found Mrs. Trelegan calmly seated on her strong-box. The constable pleaded with her to get up, so that he could gain possession of the disputed property, but Mrs. Trelegan, who had consulted an attorney, refused to move, and the constable fearing an arrest for assault and battery, dared not lay a hand on her. When the train arrived the railroad boys picked up the trunk, with Mrs. Trelegan sitting on top of it, and placed it in the baggage car. The train went on its way and the constable still has his writ.
